At half-time of the game the Top Ten are presented to the fans.

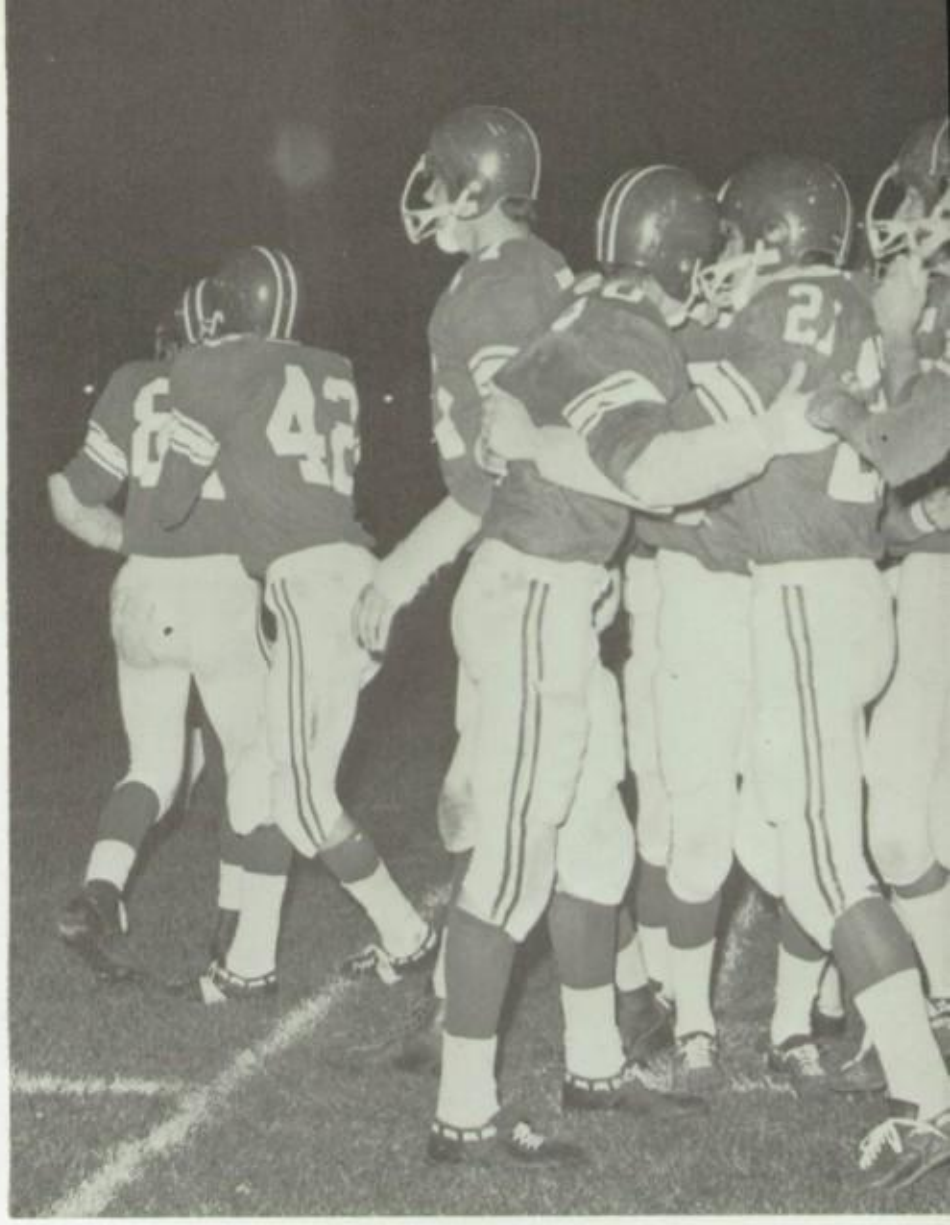
Mist of Andromeda Achieves Magical Effect

"Days of Future Past" was chosen as the theme for the 1969 Homecoming activities. The week began with the announcement of the Top Ten senior girls. The school was then put into the Homecoming spirit by the hall decorations done by classes.

At the Queen's Assembly the Top Ten were escorted by senior football players and presented to the school by Dave Hunt. The result of the school vote was released when Dave Burrows placed the Queen's royal robe on Carol Squire.

That night to show the football team the school's spirit the bonfire was held. The Top Ten dance followed immediately in the cafeteria.

The highlight of the week was the game when the Spartans defeated Adrian 16-14. The "Mist of Andromeda" ended the week with music by the Anniversary and a special fog effect.



The team congratulates Brad Bishop on his touchdown run.

Nine Crystal and Log staff members learned journalistic skills at M. S. U.'s Communications Arts Institute. Seven student officers went to Leadership Clinic at VanBuren County Youth Camp and at Iron Mountain.

At Interlochen and other music camps, 18 Lakeview choir, band, and orchestra members participated in a variety of music related training sessions.

Lakeview Students Volunteer Time to Community

Government Day, Junior Achievement and Community Volunteers were three programs which helped link Lakeview to the Battle Creek area in 1969-70.

Government Day, in October, saw students participate in township and other branches of government. Junior Achievement members learned business techniques through "companies" connected to local business and industry.

Community Volunteers was organized in February through the efforts of Student Council and Mrs. Margaret Johnson of the Battle Creek Volunteer Services Bureau. Students worked after school for such institutions as the Veterans Hospital and the Fort Custer State Home.

Leta Seymour, Jeff Heppler, Pam Harrison, Bob Pryzstas and Becky Duecker volunteer for community projects.

Tom Coulson works for his Junior Achievement Company by broadcasting Keener Creations.

Two and three year members of Junior Achievement are: Toni Flanders, Beth Kundo, Cyndee Zande, Lynn Fencl, Claude Rowe, Dave Burrows.

DJ Bob Nyles discusses the Keener Company with Dave Burrows and Claude Rowe.

Debators Develop Strong Cases, Show Promise

Tough competition from South Central Conference opponents held Lakeview's youthful 1969-70 debate team to a 7-13 record. The team did finish ahead of Adrian in the conference standings and also made impressive showings against Jackson Parkside and Lansing Everett.

Coach Lynn Wallace's affirmative teams had difficulty winning all year. Sophomores Jim Tompert and Bruce Sholes, however, developed a good negative case which earned them victories over several formidable foes. Their strong debating and the maturing of other underclass debators could make Lakeview a challenge for the SCC title next year.

Burrows and Maltby regularly attended Rotary Club meetings. Carol and Sara were honored at a luncheon at the Hart Hotel. All became involved in community projects.

Led by Prom Co-Chairman, Bev South and John Thompson, the juniors produced a successful Prom. The decorations followed the romantic theme of Romeo and Juliet.

The Man Who Came to Dinner Comes to LHS

The Senior class presented "The Man Who Came to Dinner" on March 20 and 21. The annual production, directed by Miss Ellen Harvey and Mr. Tom Case is one of the major projects of the Senior class.

In the play, Sheridan Whiteside, a radio announcer is forced by an injury to stay in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley. He promply takes over the house with his overbearing manner, business dealings, broadcasting equipment, and wild, but merry friends. Romance is added to the story when a love triangle develops between actress Lorraine Sheldon, Maggie Cutler, and Bert Jefferson.

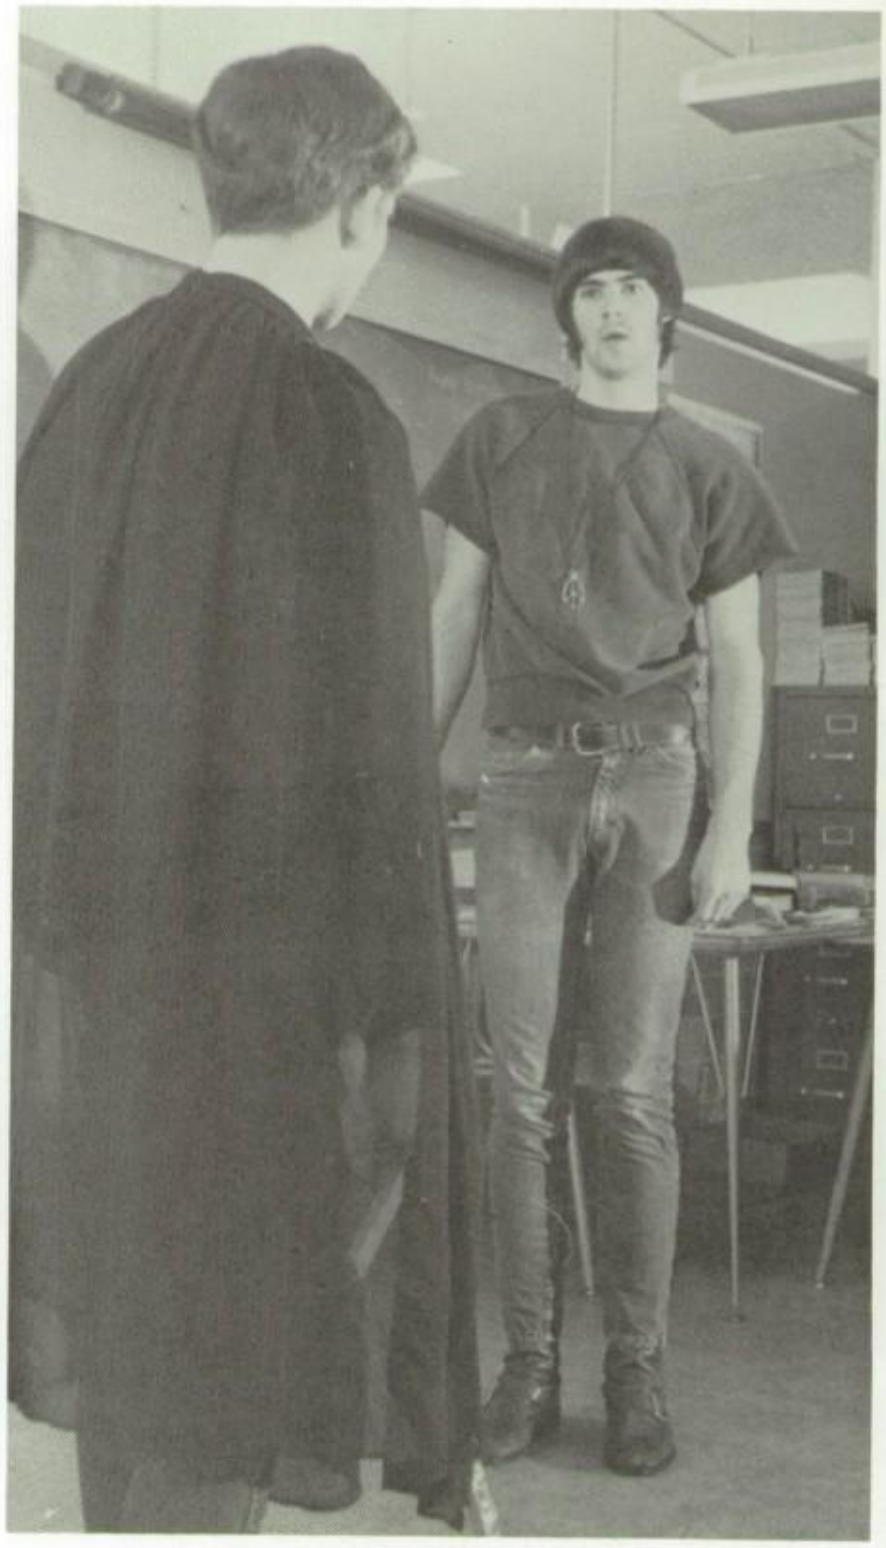
Academics

Students Register for Term English Courses

Choosing courses for next year from Lakeview's new phased English curriculum was a highlight of the year for English Department students. The new curriculum will offer a variety of English experiences for students of all skill levels. Sophomores, juniors and seniors will be grouped by ability and interest rather than by class in school. Freshmen will continue to take Freshman English for a full year.

Crowded classrooms resulted in the hiring of an additional teacher, Mrs. Pat Lawrence, for the second semester. Also at the semester break, Mr. Tom Case joined the English faculty.

Blake Rees and Wes Heppler analyze Adrian's school paper.



Mr. Lawrence's fourth hour junior English class produces and films Macbeth.

Kathy Eason surveys the new one-semester English courses.

Copy editor Donna Hunt re-types a Crystal story.

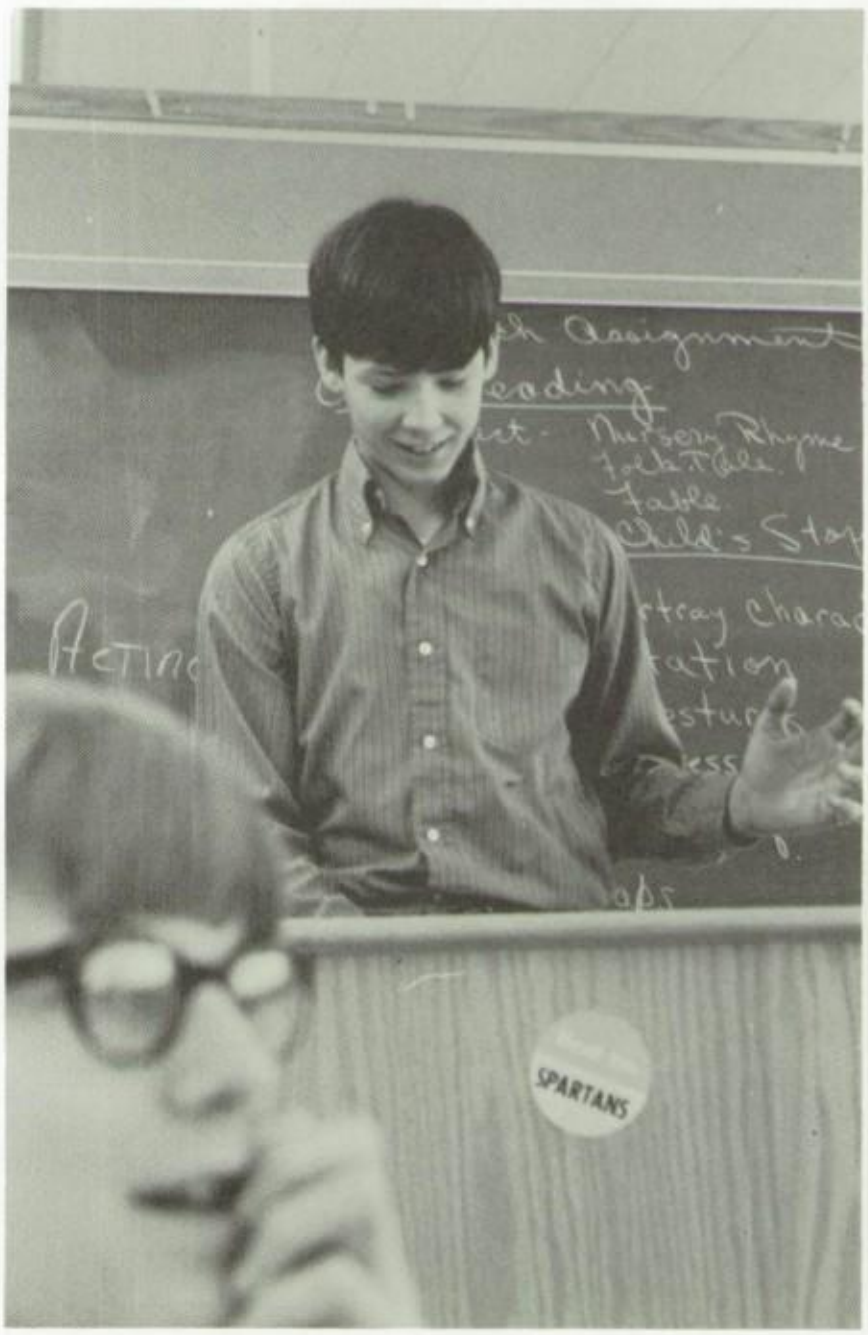
Miss Harvey's drama class produces a play, "The Perils of Sweet Nell or How the Colonel Cooked His Goose," starring Sharyl Larke, Valerie Robertson and Leslie Corum. The play was staged in Miss Harvey's room.

Speech, Languages Stress Communication

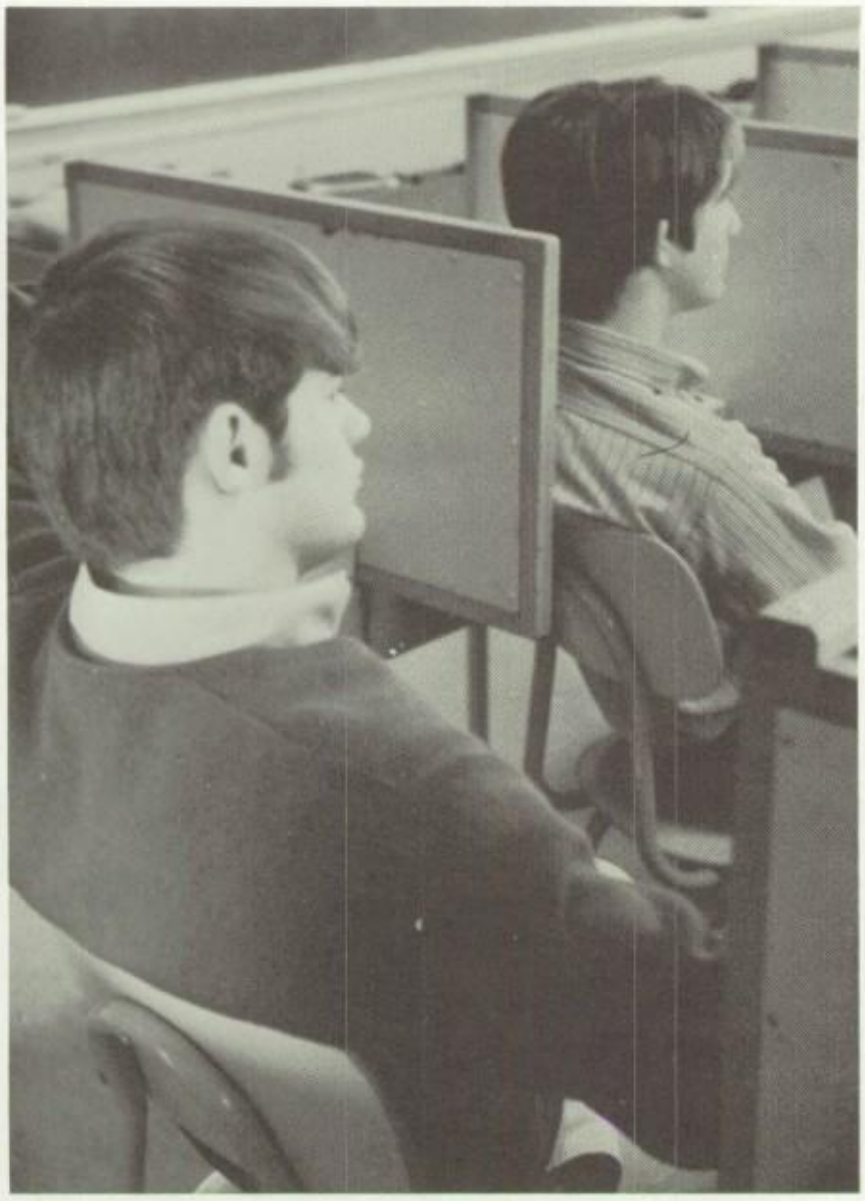
Oral communication is fundamental. Lakeview students this year learned to communicate in their own language in speech and drama courses and in other languages through French, Spanish and Latin courses.

In drama class, students produced their own plays and practiced hard to learn the art of communicating with a theater audience. Speech students gave oral interpretations of literature, persuasive speeches, demonstration speeches and other presentations.

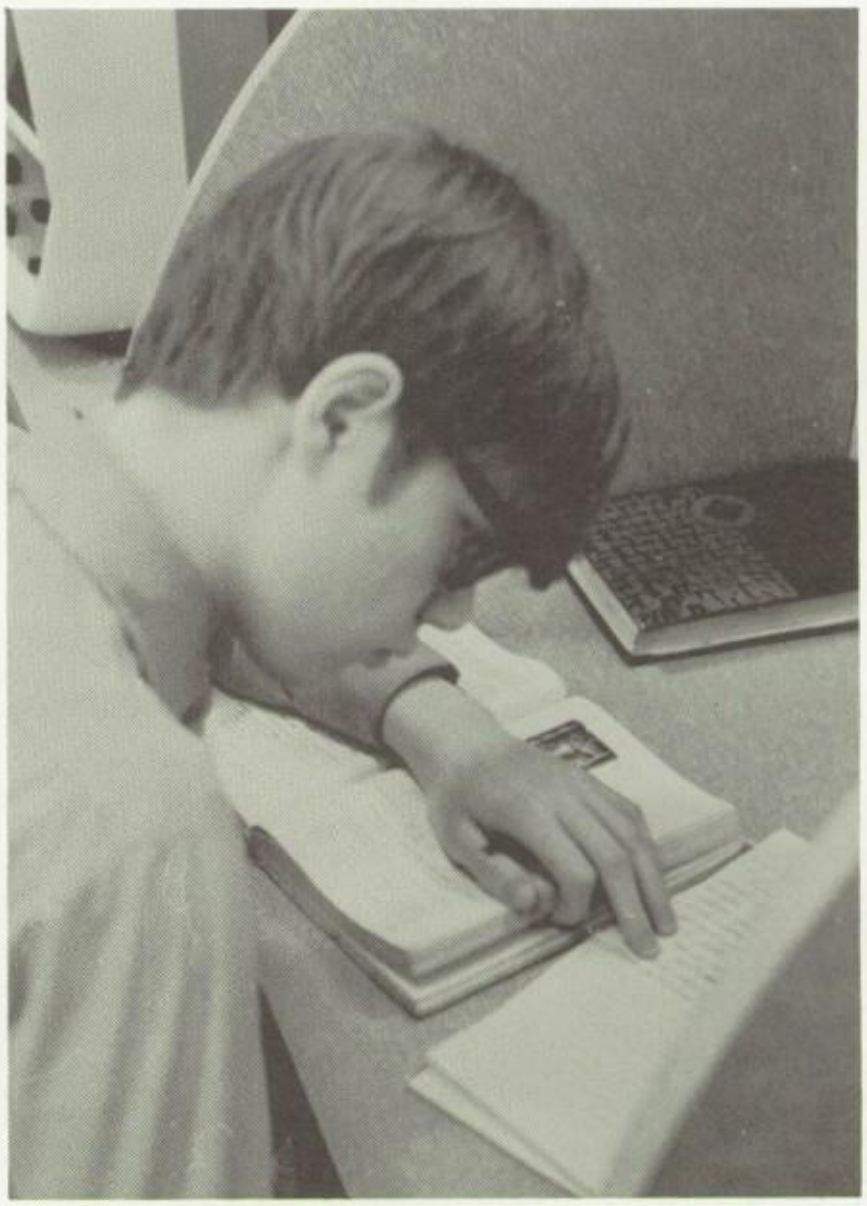
In foreign language courses, oral mastery of the language was emphasized along with written mastery. The courses taught culture as well as language.



Mr. DeWeerd's students get behind-the-podium practice.



Miss McMullen's students watch a movie on French culture.



Latin student Blake Rees does exercises in solitude.

Modern machines help students master foreign languages.

Vocational Students Learn Practical Skills For Improved Living

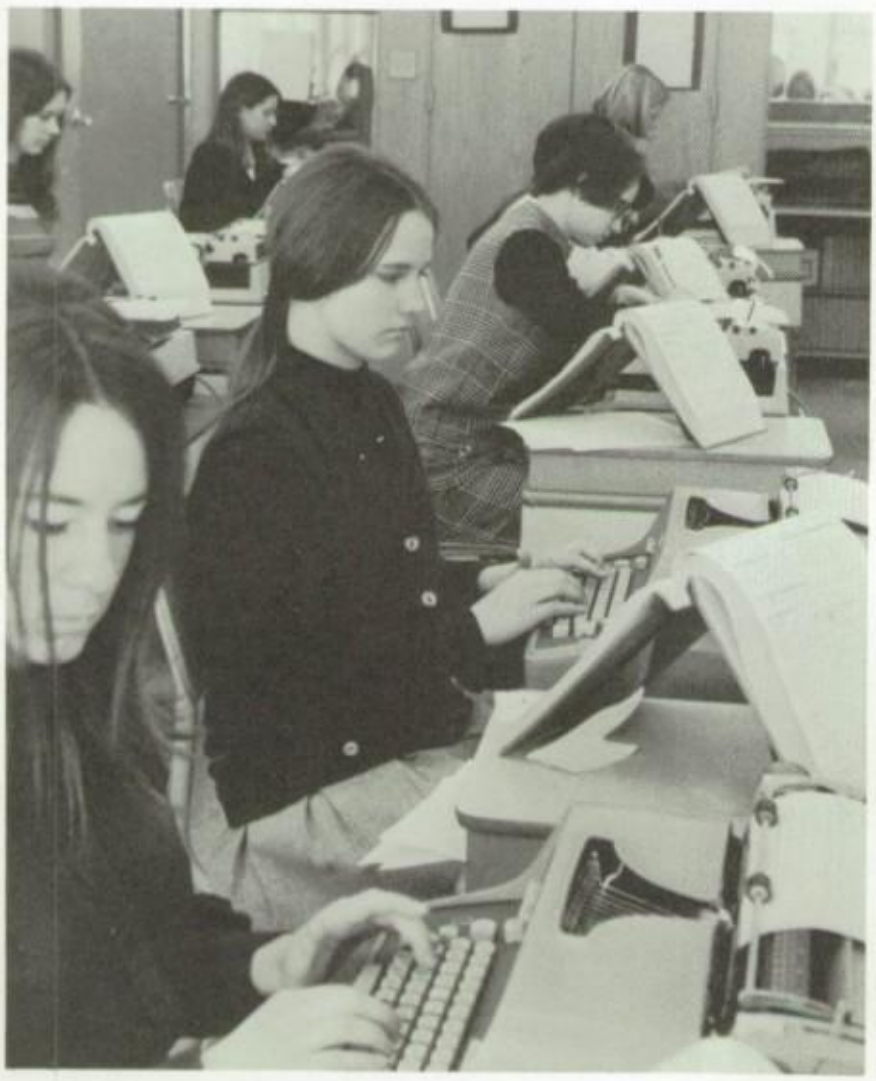
Training in practical skills was offered by the Home Economics, Business and Industrial Arts Departments.

Home Economics students learned both basic and advanced techniques of cooking, sewing and other homemaking essentials. Practical experience in sales was gained by FHA members who ran the school store.

Business education training included instruction in typing, shorthand, office machine operations, distributive education and retailing. DECA members operated the snack bar and many students became involved in work-study programs.

Industrial arts students took courses in drafting, machine shop, auto repair, woodshop and metal work.

Karen Yntema pushes to increase her typing speed.



Typing is necessary preparation for college and office work.

Music and Art Classes Teach Self-Expression

The student finds a place to express himself in the music and art classes at Lakeview. The music department offers four vocal music classes, two bands, an orchestra and a music theory appreciation course. Instruments may be rented from the school; so that no student is denied a chance to play in the bands. An addition to the music department this year was a baby-grand piano.

The art department has a four year program for students. Required for the class are several projects such as water colors, mono-chromatic drawings, and montages. Once the required projects are completed students are given the freedom to choose the other projects they wish to do. Their creations are exhibited in the display cases by the art room.

Guest speaker Congressman Brown comments on the widely-publicized "Chicago 7" trial.

Field Trips, Speakers Spice Social Studies

Field trips and interesting guest speakers headlined 1969-70 for Social Studies Department students. Places visited included Fort Custer State Home by U.S. Government classes and the Chicago Museum of Natural History by history students.

Congressman Garry Brown visited Lakeview for an informal news conference in February, and discussed the "Chicago 7" trial, the 18-year-old vote and other topics. Among visitors to social studies classes were dissident Portage Northern high school students and anti-war leader Ron Pender, who spoke prior to the October Moratorium.

Evelyn Glady and Mary Neal concentrate during physiology class.

Math, Science Departments Look to Future

Kathy Baumann turns to explain a geometry proof.

The science and mathematics departments offered students courses with both variety and an eye on the future this year.

Science students could elect challenging advanced courses such as Advanced Biology, Advanced Chemistry and Physics. Stressing more basic skills were Earth Science, General Science and Senior Science. Physiology, Biology and Electronics appealed to a wide range of students. The department purchased new equipment for student use, including new microscopes and a color measurement device.

Math students also were offered a wide variety of electives, with the added assurance that next year's curriculum will be even better. Change will come at the basic level, where a series of four semester courses and a pre-algebra course will replace Basic Math, Principles of Math, Consumer Math and parts one and two of Introduction to Algebra.

Math student Gary Champlin placed in the top forty in the Michigan Math Prize competition.

Adult Study Leads to Diplomas, Enrichment

Lakeview's comprehensive adult education program led to fuller use of the high school building and excellent educational opportunities for adults in 1969-70. Both high school completion and adult enrichment courses were offered, under the leadership of Director of Special Services David Brophy.

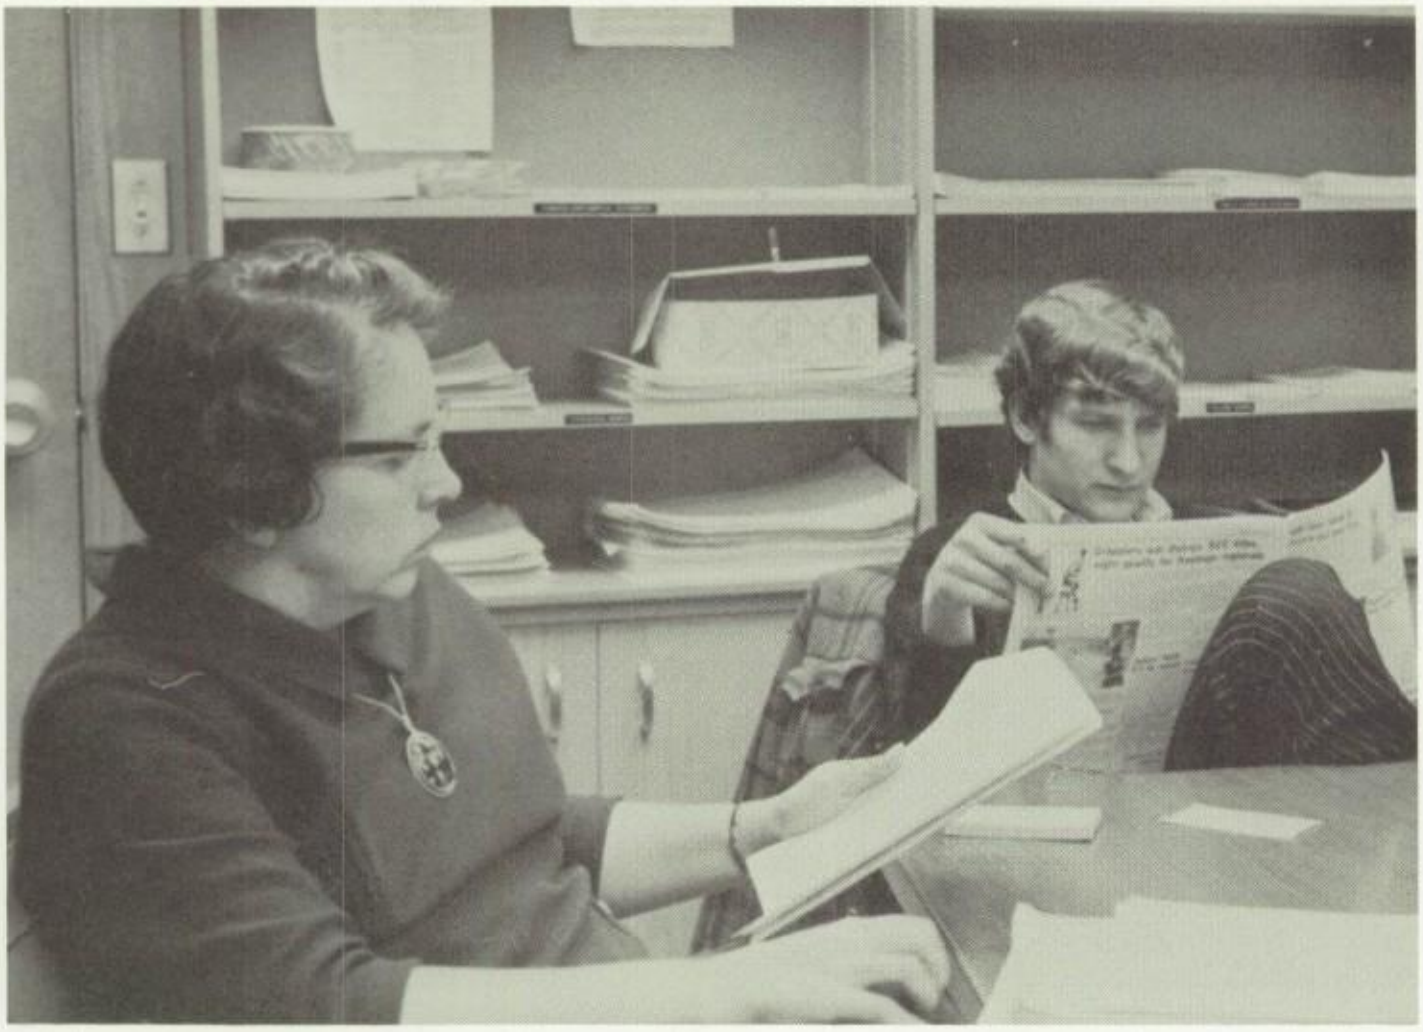
Courses were instructed by Lakeview teachers and other qualified area citizens. Instruction took place on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Offerings ranged from basic high school English to enrichment courses such as guitar playing, square dancing, sewing and photojournalism.

Students receive night instruction in guitar playing.

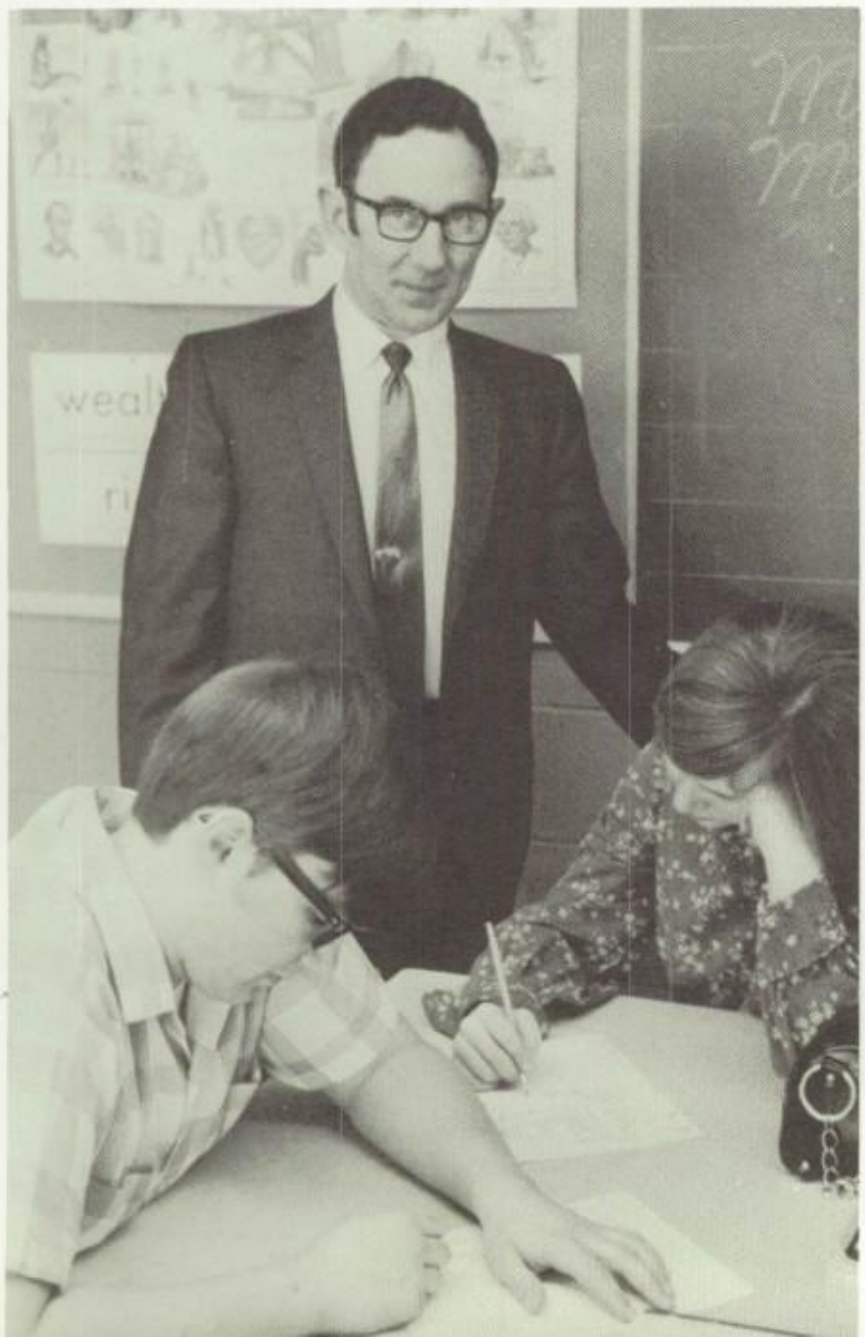
Adults learn typing from Lakeview teacher Marilyn Hook.

Cooking arts are taught in the home economics room.



Mrs. Pieper helps students sharpen oral skills.

Special Services Broaden Academic Program



To better meet the individual needs of students, Lakeview continued to offer instruction in remedial and advanced reading, speech correction and special education this year.

Reading teacher Mrs. Geraldine Mathews helped students eliminate reading deficiencies and also offered assistance to good readers who desired to improve their reading speed. Friday mornings, speech therapist Miss Jacqueline Pieper visited Lakeview to help students develop speaking skills.

Director of Special Education Luis Volpe worked for an atmosphere of interaction among his students and taught basic academic subjects including English, social studies, math and science.

Mr. Volpe assists students with English exercises.

Karl Rautmann joins in on third hour water polo fun.

Physical Education Answers Modern Needs

A growing need for stepped up physical education has been stressed by the late President Kennedy. The course is most important to the individual's health, since in our age, the increasing amount of leisure time must be met with a fit body.

In physical education, the main objectives are to gain poise, muscular coordination and co-operation along with emotional stability.

The past year has been very profitable for both the girls' and boys' physical education classes. Their activities ranged from those having a rich heritage such as track and field to the modern isometric exercises.

Physical education must be taken for a total of two years. If an individual desires to, he may take up to four years of physical education.

Gary Champlin makes full use of the library's benefits.

Students Trained in Library's Operation

In Lakeview's library training course, the student learns by doing. The program is patterned for the library's needs and the students' abilities.

The student librarian learns responsibility in the aiding of the students and faculty. The librarian learns many of the operations of the library, including copy machines, filing, microfilm equipment plus the signing out of materials, checking materials back into the library, returning materials to their proper location, keeping materials repaired and available for use, and aiding students in locating materials that they need.

One full academic credit is given for successful completion of a year in this class. Students are expected to complete daily and special assignments, in addition to learning library operation skills.

Gerry Pugh, Janet Thorton, and Francis Dorn use the microfilm reader.

Four Straight Wins Mark Season's Success

Lakeview's 1969 football team posted a 4-4-1 season, including consecutive shutouts over Marshall, Portage Central, and Kalamazoo Loy Norrix. The Spartans also downed Adrian, but tied East Lansing and fell to Jackson Parkside, Ann Arbor Huron, Lansing Everett, and Battle Creek Central.

Under Coach Buzz McNally and assistants Jim Ritter and Alan Gibbs, The Spartans displayed a top team effort.

Co-Captain Tom Bellwood was named Most Valuable Player at the annual banquet. Co-Captain Ed Longbons received the Sportmanship award and senior Bob Palmer the Most Improved Player award. Also at the banquet Jim Hagemann and Brad Bishop were named the Co-Captains for next year.

Three Spartans made the All-South Central Conference first team: Bellwood at defensive halfback, Longbons at both offensive and defensive tackle, and junior Brad Bishop at offensive halfback. Ed Longbons received honorable mention on the All-State team.

Reserves

The job given to the coaches of the freshman and reserve teams is more than just training athletes to win. They are teaching not only the rules of the game but also sportsmanship and pride in their victories and losses.

The reserve team coached by Jim DeWeerd and Butch Perry compiled a 1-6-1 season record. Leading the reserves were Mike Slack and Steve Ott who were voted Co-Captains by their teammates. Ott was also voted Most Valuable Player and moved up to the varsity for the last game.

Freshmen

Because a record number of freshman came out for practice this fall, the team divided into two squads to insure that all boys would have a chance to play. Coached by Carroll Jensen, Dick Fauson, and Jerry Hepler, the freshman began their training to prepare for playing on the varsity level.

Honorary Co-Captains of the A squad were Jeff McIver and Kevin Shook. Randy Dibelka and John Dettl were voted Co-Captains of the B squad. East Lansing was an impressive win in the A teams 2-2-1 season. The B team finished with 3 wins.

Season Highlighted by Marshall Shut-out

Led by state finalist Dave Mulder, the 1969 cross country team sprinted to a successful 6-4 season. Mulder, a senior and team captain, placed eighth in the regional meet, then went to Ypsilanti and finished an impressive fourteenth in the state meet.

Coach Glenn Lawrence guided the harriers, who highlighted the season with a rare 15-50 "slam" win over Marshall. The team also beat Jackson Parkside for the first time and convincingly defeated Lansing Everett.

Lakeview also fared well in the South Central Conference Meet, finishing third, and in three invitational meets. The Spartans placed sixth out of 20 schools at Napoleon, fourth out of 20 schools at Sturgis, and fifth out of 17 entries at Albion.

Next year looks promising as six lettermen return led by Captain Kit Cornwell.

Four Wins Brighten "Long" Basketball Season

Although always showing signs of a winning ballclub, Coach Larry Hulce's varsity basketball team managed only four victories in their 17 encounters of the 1969-70 season.

Despite too many losing nights, the Spartans did garner victories over Hastings, Traverse City, Albion and Adrian. Lakeview also seriously challenged South Central Conference Champion East Lansing at LHS gym before losing 60-56. The Spartans played a solid game before falling short by three at Jackson Parkside.

By the season's end, sophomores Ken Bailey and Bill Fox and junior John Boos were regular starters for Coach Hulce. Also seeing extensive action were Co-Captains Bob Okerman and Bob Palmer, Jerry Cleary, Tom Markell, Gary Goodwin, Tom Bellwood, Ken Bilbia, Bob Buck, Randy Foreman and Fred Rainer.

Although winning turned its back on Lakeview this year, five returning lettermen promise to anchor a strong hardwood team next year.

Junior Cagers Suffer Year of Heartbreakers

Jerry Lindsey fires an "eyes-closed" jumper from ten feet.

The reserve basketball team suffered all year from being edged out at the final buzzer. They dropped 14 games, losing five of them in the final minutes. Coach Buzz McNally was always searching for the winning combination, but just seemed to be one step behind success.

The reserves' three victories included an impressive seven-point win over arch-rival Battle Creek Central.

Leadership at guard came from Mark Taylor, Mike Warren and Shell Isenberg, while Tim Mehl, Wes Heppler and Jerry Lindsey were tops up front. Freshman Bob Flees joined the team for two weeks of practice and game experience. Coach McNally feels that Bob will be a real asset next year.

The freshmen were LHS's only basketball team to finish with a winning record. Their 12-4 record under Coach Joe Kurti included being undefeated at home.

Finishing strong, the team handed Albion its only loss of the season. After that game, standout forward Bob Flees was elevated to the junior varsity, but the team pulled together to down St. Phillip and Sturgis in the season's last two games.

A combined team effort enabled the defeat of cross-town rival Battle Creek Central by a score of 53-52. The final relay decided the meet.

Guiding the team to success was Coach Dave Diget, who returned to Lakeview after spending a year at Western Michigan University getting his Masters Degree.

Oncoming Tankers Prep To Fill Varsity Spots

This year's Little Spartans finished with as even a record as they could get. They logged a 2-2-1 record, losing one meet to Lansing Everett's varsity by one point. Their tie came with Ann Arbor Huron, which trailed in actual points. Lakeview, however, couldn't come up with a diver so a tie was awarded.

Reserve swimmers Rob Thayer, Steve Renger, and Joe Zangaro were moved up to swim varsity and possibly letter on the senior team.

The freshman splashers had only one meet this year, but an improved program is being looked into for next year. The meet was held at Lakeview's pool against Adrian and the Maples went home with a 70-35 win.

Enthusiasm grows as the Little Spartans clinch a win.

Coach Jerry Hepler's matmen climaxed one of Lakeview's best-ever seasons by winning both the South Central Conference and District titles. Ranked as high as seventh in the state, Lakeview posted a 12-2-1 record and won both the Lansing and Hastings Invitationals.

Among many moments of triumph, perhaps the greatest was at the District Tournament, when the Spartans won six of 12 championships in outclassing Battle Creek Central and rugged Niles. Brad McCrory (123), Rick Rizor (130), Bill Lett (137), Ted Goff (145), Doug Burland (185) and Ed Longbons (hwt) all won championships. Longbons' pinning of Central's Jeff McGinnis was his third of the day and set a school career record for number of pins. Rizor, Lett, Burland and Longbons won berths in the State Tourney.

Frosh, Reserves Boast Potential Mat Champs

Lakeview's reign as SCC and District wrestling champs may be a long one, if this year's reserve and freshman records are an indication.

Under Coach Jim Ritter, the reserves piled up a 10-1 record, including a 26-19 victory over Battle Creek Central. Dave Burnham notched seven pins for the reserves.

The freshman team recorded a 3-2 record, beating Coldwater, Galesburg and Jackson Parkside. According to Coach Ritter the large 25-member squad promises good wrestling depth for LHS next year.

This year's cindermen were out to better their 2-6 1969 record. With eleven returning lettermen, Coach Larry Hulce was confident of an improved season.

Coach Jerry Hepler took over the vacancy left by Bill Powell who went to coach at Western Kentucky University. Hulce and Hepler promised that hard work and dedication would be the main emphasis for the 1970 season.

Laughlin Returns to Head Spartan Netters

The 1970 tennis team took to the courts to improve on last season's 7-8 record. The four returning lettermen promised to place Lakeview in the middle of the scramble for the South Central Conference title.

Coach Larry Laughlin took over the coaching spot from Karl Kerber, who left Lakeview after the close of last year. Laughlin hoped the team would make a really fine showing to assure a winning season for Lakeview.

Lakeview's girls varsity team used the gym many nights. The team, coached by Miss Janice Harwood and Miss Elizabeth Curry, compiled an impressive record against other high schools' teams.

Varsity Extends Coverage to All Winter Sports

This year, under the direction of Mrs. Hepler, the varsity cheerleaders provided better support by traveling to all away swimming, wrestling, and basketball events. This was the first year that swimming and wrestling have been represented at away meets. In order to attend two or more events on the same night the cheerleaders divided into squads.

The cheerleaders sponsored the sale of pompoms during the football season. The sale was put on a class competition basis with the class who sold the most, receiving points towards the spirit jug.

The varsity and reserve squads attended cheerleading camp at Hartland, Michigan, during the summer. Due to a ruling by the National Cheerleaders Association the Lakeview varsity was ineligible to compete for a third straight Grand National Championship. However the squad did capture 2nd place at their session. Senior Judy Corington received a 4th place trophy in the individual competition. The reserves brought home six ribbons from the session they attended at Hartland.

New Structure Fails to Improve Council

It was another disappointing year for Student Council. A six-committee structure, put into effect in September, drew only limited support and, by March, was scrapped in favor of a new divided council, proposed by Junior Chris Boyd.

The divided proposal created two branches of council, social and political. The social branch was to have been made up of elected officers and all students interested in the activities going on at a particular time. The political branch was slated to be a representative assembly of homeroom delegates.

Elections were planned for early April so that the new officers would have time to organize under the new structure.

Projects accomplished this year under the leadership of President Dave Hunt included a community service assembly and a student coffeehouse in the cafeteria. In the fall, Council helped bring about a solution to the dress code controversy.

Council was hurt this year by the resignation of Vice-president Terry Dunivin and Corresponding Secretary Judy Corington's move to Kansas City in November.

Top Students Gain Recognition in National Honor Society

Lakeview's chapter of the National Honor Society supported a membership of over 30 top senior students during the past year. Members must maintain a 3.0 grade average. They are chosen on the basis of character, activities, leadership, and scholastic ability.

Early in the year members met and discussed curriculum changes they wished to see initiated. They also chose Kathy Taylor and Gary Champlin as applicants for National Honor Society scholarships.

Choir Perfects Ensemble Through Performances

Paul Marquardt and Judi Capper harmonize at the piano.

The A Cappella choir consists of the most talented and experienced vocalists. It is directed by Mrs. Jean Lower. A Cappella is active in many musical events throughout the area. One of the traditions at Lakeview is to have the choir perform for the Queen's Assembly. Beginning their year with this, they continued their hard work by singing at many other concerts and contests. Among these were the W. M. U. clinic and the Christmas concert.

Spartanaires consists of the top twelve A Cappella members. This year they sang in the Madrigal Festival, Winter Fantasy, Christmas concert, and the District Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Honors Choir is a statewide organization in which selected members from each school perform in a combined concert. On Field and Stage

Band Shows Proficiency

The band, directed by Mr. Carl Moore, played for half-time of all home football games and during every pep assembly. When the weather became too bad for marching they brought their entertainment inside and assumed a concert style. They performed both winter and spring concerts.

The marching band received a first division rating in the annual District festival. Nine members were chosen to be in the All Star Band concert for this district. They spent a weekend in Bronson, Michigan practing for this event.

The band was one of 110 high school bands that attended Band Day at the University of Michigan. These combined bands played at the Michigan-Vanderbilt game.

The Spartan Band, made up of freshmen, learned techniques by marching at the Homecoming game, attending Band Day at Western Michigan University, performing at the Veterans Administration Hospital, and playing in the annual winter and spring concerts. Qualified freshmen will join the 1970-71 varsity band.

Orchestra Members Show Versatility

With the help of their conductor, Mr. Douglas Jones, Lakeview's orchestra has enjoyed another eventful and musical year. They rehearsed for one hour every day, developing their skills. The orchestra began the year with a combined concert with Battle Creek Central. They also played at the Thanksgiving Concert, and later participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Festival, and the M.S.B.O.A. Band and Orchestra Festival. Some members traveled to the Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Orchestra members did not limit themselves to Lakeview's musical program. Several members were in the Battle Creek Junior Symphony, the Battle Creek Senior Symphony, and the Kalamazoo Junior Symphony. One member of the orchestra is in the National Honors Choir. Several others attended Interlochen Music Camp during the summer.

To help members appreciate better the contributions of Roman culture to our civilization, Latin Club studied Roman customs and dress at its regular meetings. Advised by Mrs. Geraldine Fitzgerald, the club also surveyed Latin law, literature, and history.

Meeting programs included viewing movies of the destruction of Pompeii and a production of Virgil's Aeneid by student John Latta.

Clubs Study Culture, Mexican Trip Planned

French and Spanish Clubs offered members an opportunity to both enjoy fellowship and supplement their classroom study.

French Club, advised by Miss Marilyn McMullen and Mrs. Judy Butler, started the year with initiation. In December, over 50 students attended the club's annual Christmas party. During the winter, members tobogganed at Echo Valley and attended a French play at Western Michigan University. Club officers were president Kathy Cleary, vice-president Janie Belson, treasurer Patti Doe, and secretary Kathy Taylor.

Advised by Miss Barbara Dekema and Mrs. Barbara McKale, Spanish Club members met periodically and planned events such as a Taco party with Battle Creek Central, a trip to Lake Michigan, and a summer 1970 trip to Mexico. Officers were president Cyndee Zande, vice-president Carol Squire, treasurer, Gail Mitchell, secretary Betty Arnquist, and sergeant-at-arms Karen Yntema.

FHA Operates Store, FTA Oberves Classes

The Lakeview philosophy states that education is both a preparation for life and an experience in living. Lakeview's chapters of Future Homemakers of America and Future Teachers of America strove in 1969-70 to fulfill this philosophy.

FHA members, advised by Mrs. Alberta Hawkins, held regular meetings which stressed parliamentary procedure. They also operated the school store each class day morning throughout the year from 7:40 until 8:00.

FTA members spent an hour each week working with elementary teachers at Westlake school. The members both observed and participated in classroom activities. Miss Marlyn DeWaard advised the club, whose members plan careers in teaching and related fields.

FHA president, Sue Kelly, discusses plans with Mrs. Hawkins.

This year they sold Homecoming mums, managed the snack bar, and held an employer-employee banquet. They also sent representatives to the Western Michigan Regional D.E.C.A. Leadership Conference and the State D.E.C.A. Conference in Detroit.

Girls Synchronize for April Swim Show

Aqua Sprites is a synchronized swimming club. The girls practice weekly to perfect such stunts as dolphins, catalinas, and porpoises, so that they can perform them in the annual show. Numbers in the show are assigned according to seniority and ability. Swim board members, with the help of Mrs. Hepler write the numbers for the show. Rehearsels increase as the show approaches. Costumes, scenery, and programs must also be worked on.

This year their show was built around a perfume theme. There were several solos, duets, and trios, along with the group numbers.

GAA Promotes Sportmanship and Friendship

The Girls Athletic Association, G.A.A., gives girls an opportunity to participate in sports activities. G.A.A. meets on Monday nights. Basketball, volleyball and swimming are available at these meetings. Special meetings include bowling, picnics, and horseback riding.

This year G.A.A. again sponsored the annual Girl-Date-Boy dance. Some members were given the opportunity to attend the M.G.A.A. Leadership Camp. The Miss Chipley Memorial Scholarship was set up this year. This will be given to a girl of outstanding athletic ability each year.

Pep Club Sponsors Wrestling Exhibition

Lakeview's athletic teams got an extra boost toward victory this year from Pep Club, the school's largest organization.

Guided by president, Barb John and adviser, Mrs. Gretchen Batista, the club sparked a Spartan spirit which won praise from both coaches and athletes.

The club sold football season tickets to members at a reduced rate. They organized bus trips to away football and basketball games. They put on a wrestling demonstration for the benefit of students who wished to learn about the rules and techniques of wrestling.

Committes appointed within the club were responsible for making locker signs and to decorate the gym and the cafeteria.

Planning Committee Initiates Special Spirit Week

The Pep Assembly Planning Committee initiated several new activities this year. The committee of 11 planned all pep assemblies, the Homecoming bonfire, and a special spirit week.

During the spirit week classes competed to secure the most signatures. The scrolls with over 1400 signatures were presented to Coach McNally at the pep assembly. The cafeteria was also decorated for the week.

Club Members Seek Medical Occupations

Health Club, now in its second year at Lakeview, was originally organized for high school students interested in a career in the medical field.

Under the supervision of Mr. William Schaumann, the club participated in the Health Careers Carnival held at St. Philip. This project was sponsored and planned by the inter-club council, who provided many opportunities for the participants to observe their particular field of interest. At one meeting the club had a speaker on child psychiatry who related many of his experiences to the group. A state-wide convention of all Health Clubs was held in February which several members attended. A trip was planned to the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Health Clubs exist all over Michigan to give students a look at what their future could contain.

L Club Unites Athletes

Athletics—related involvement at LHS is not limited to the school's eight varsity sports. Through L Club, one of Lakeview's oldest and best known organizations, athletes find fellowship and plan activities which will benefit the school's athletic program.

To be a member of L Club, an athlete must win at least one varsity letter. To win the letter, he must meet participation requirements set up by the school Athletic Board and must, for the entire year, obey without exception Lakeview's exacting training rules.

The club's first activity was to sponsor a fund-raising dance, November 14. Other fund raising activities provided the money for a planned spring trip.

Volunteers Serve LHS

Student volunteers worked an hour each day in the library, office, and guidance department to help Lakeview operate more smoothly.

Library volunteers, directed by librarians Mrs. Sandra Colburn and Mr. Warren Schlatter, earned credit by locating reference materials for students and faculty and by working at the desk.

Delivering call slips was a main duty of guidance department workers. Main office volunteers operated the school switchboard and kept attendance records.

New Adviser Heads Staffs

Crystal

The Crystal, under new adviser Mr. Richard Lovell, worked to be an effective opinion former in the school.

The staff published editorials strongly expressing their views and ran in-depth stories on topics such as drug abuse, student appearance, and astrology.

Working with a new printer, Coffman Printing Company, the Crystal used new headline and page makeup styles to improve the paper's readability.

Log

To keep up with contemporary trends in yearbooking and better represent a changing Lakeview, the 1970 Log staff added an "Academics" section and a school index. They also changed advertising format and made the Log introduction all color.

Effective use of white space and elimination of cumbersome copy was stressed. The staff cooperated closely with representative David Powers of Paragon Yearbooks, Krums Photographic, and new adviser Richard Lovell.

Administration And Board Of Education Plan For Future Growth

The Lakeview School System operates under the authority of the School Board. The seven members of the board are elected for four year terms. The board has open meetings the second Monday of every month as well as many private meetings.

The board conducts all school system business. This includes forming policy, hiring all faculty and employees, approving the budget, planning additions and providing for the upkeep of existing buildings.

In the past three years additions have been built on Riverside, Minges Brook, and Territorial. Presently an addition for Woodrow is being planned.

The three secretaries co-operate with each other to make their work easier and more enjoyable.

Office Co-ordinates Policy and Activities

Mr. Thomas and Mr. Johnson had the efficient assistance of three secretaries who helped the office run smoothly. The secretaries' jobs included taking attendance each hour, answering the phone, and greeting visitors in addition to conducting official school business.

Mrs. Lois Vieyra, head secretary to Mr. Thomas, attended to his official correspondence and served as general receptionist. She also formulated the athletic eligibility lists for the coaches.

Mrs. Doris Dunlap, accounting secretary, took care of all school financial matters. Among her jobs were keeping club treasuries, assisting the Log and Crystal business managers, depositing cafeteria profits and taking care of fee money.

Mrs. Evelyn Birdsall, attendance secretary, kept all attendance records, which were submitted to the Michigan Department of Education. She also supervised office processing of schedules.

Counselors Give Faster and More Efficient Aid

Increased use of data processing and careful preparation for use of the new Calhoun Vocational Center highlighted a busier-than-ever year for Lakeview's Guidance Department.

Report cards were mailed home for the first time this year. At grade time, computers provided LHS with office grade lists, teacher class lists, "problem" reports on students who received either an "E" of a "5" in citizenship, and "honor roll" lists of students with 3.00 or better grade averages.

Counselors visited social studies classes to describe the Calhoun Vocational Center, which will offer courses such as commercial art and building trades. About 170 juniors and seniors will attend the center starting next fall.

During the fall, a series of four programs for parents and students was sponsored by the department. Program topics were "Parents and You," "College and You," "Military Service and You," and "Occupations and You." Large crowds heard qualified speakers and participated in the "buzz sessions" which followed.

Campus Life

Under the direction of qualified and responsible leaders, Campus Life, in a casual and informal atmosphere, discusses the provocative and contemporary issues facing teenagers, and gets to the core of the problem without sounding official or adult.

Bridges of communication are often built by unique group activities such as "hearse" packs, pillow fights, man-hunts, and of course, the famous Campus Life "electric-chair" (harmless, but effective-the kids get a charge out of this one!)

In addition to regular meetings, Campus Life also sponsors area-wide activities including the "Wild Goose Chase", "Scream in the Dark", "Bug Night", and "The Campus Life Sweetheart Pagaent", won this year by Lakeview's Darla Hook. All events are carefully planned and supervised. The directors are specialists in their field of group dynamics. They know how to provide young people with exciting as well as purposeful activities.
